This policy is reviewed and updated annually to ensure that food and drink in the examination room at Sir Thomas Rich's is managed in accordance with current requirements and regulations.

References in this policy to ICE refer to the JCQ publication Instructions for conducting examinations.

Purpose of the policy

This policy confirms that Sir Thomas Rich's reserves the right to exercise discretion whether to allow food and drink in the examination room, and confirms:

- the correct procedures are followed regarding food and drink in the examination room
- appropriate arrangements are in place for the management of food and drink in the examination room

1. Food and drink in the examination room

- Food and drink is allowed in the examination room at the discretion of the head of centre (ICE 18.2)
- Any food and drink brought into the examination room whether by the candidate or the centre must be free from packaging and all labels are removed from drink containers (ICE 18.2)
- To enable invigilators to check these items quickly and efficiently:
 - food brought into the examination room by the candidate must be free of packaging and in a transparent container
 - drink bottles must be transparent with all labels removed which would include transparent, reusable plastic bottles (ICE 18.2)

The following arrangements are applied at Sir Thomas Rich's:

Food and drink is allowed in the examination room only where:

food is free from packaging and in a transparent container

all labels are removed from drink containers and drink bottles are transparent

Additional centre-specific arrangements:

No food is permitted in an examination room during an examination, except in the case of medical need e.g. a diabetic student who may have sugary food such as some biscuits or chocolate

A suitable drink in the case of a diabetic student, is permitted in a clear see-through container free from packaging and labels.

2. Roles and Responsibilities

The role of the exams office/officer

- Through briefings, ensure candidates are aware of the regulations, and centre-specific arrangements, relating to food and drink in the examination room
