Free access to the Financial Times

Preparing for life after school

Free access to FT.com can help you with relevant and fresh ideas for essays, exams, extra-curricular activities and in interviews. Universities and employers confirm that broader general knowledge helps the best candidates stand out. The Financial Times offers free subscription to students aged 16 to 19 and then with the help of a panel of teachers, FT highlights and guides you to FT journalism that can enrich senior school education and help prepare you for successful careers.

For more information you can read our guide to the Financial Times for schools programme, or as STRS already has access, make sure you are registered by following this link: guide to creating or reactivating your FT.com account.

You can also access this link through the Sharepoint page for the LRC. If you need help, please ask the LRC Manager, Ms Case.

If you were already signed up, you will get a reactivation email direct to your inbox.
