

SIR THOMAS RICH'S SCHOOL

Oakleaze, Gloucester

Friday 31 January - Jazz Night

Dear Parents

It is always good to explore different music genres and we particularly enjoy changing our style of playing to that which is much more relaxed and syncopated! This is of course in preparation for our annual Jazz Night. One of the pieces 'brass' has chosen to play this year takes us back to 1920s' New Orleans!

Our informal Jazz evening remains a firm favourite on the School's calendar and this year it is happening on Friday, 31 January at 7.30 pm in the School Hall. Please join us for another varied programme of 'jazz' pieces performed by our own talented musicians.

We will be rehearsing as normal on Monday lunchtimes and Thursdays before School in the run-up to the event, and briefly for technical purposes during the day of our performance. In the evening, players should arrive by 7 pm and warm up in C3. Our 'dress code' for the evening will be agreed nearer the time.

As always, those parents who play brass or wind instruments (you know who you are) are strongly encouraged to join in!

Thank you for your continued support of Brass Group at Rich's.

Warmest regards

Matthew Morgan
