Brass Group Resurgence - Monday 16 November 2020

Dear Brass Group Members

Firstly, I welcome two new brass players at STRS; Dan Scott 7C (trombone) and Charlie Warner (trumpet) 7C. At this stage of the academic year, ordinarily, Dan and Charlie would have been invited to attend and made to feel most welcome at our twice weekly rehearsals. They would also have already made their debut performance with brass group at Speech Night in front of their family and friends. However, we do hope under very different circumstances, Dan and Charlie will feel able to join us in our upcoming virtual rehearsals and soon feel part of 'brass'.

You will recall my email to all parents dated 20 October, in which I was pleased to promote the relaunch of extracurricular music from next Wednesday and a return to collective music making within school, which I certainly have missed and I am sure others have too. During this half term at least, Brass Group will rehearse virtually on Monday evenings at 7.00 until 7.30 pm, commencing Monday 16 November. We will focus on Christmas music so that we can showcase our talent to parents and the wider school community at our virtual Christmas concert in December. Please call into my office next week to get your copy of the red carol book and part to Candlelight Carol.

Our rehearsals will be via Zoom. For those who have not yet downloaded the app, please do so in good time with the intention of joining the meeting below:

Matthew Morgan is inviting you to a scheduled Zoom meeting on Monday 16 November at 7.00 pm
