Challenge Fee Reminder

Please be aware the instalments you have paid do not cover the complete cost of the Ten Tors Challenge.

Individuals who reach final selection for the Ten Tors Challenge will also be expected to pay the split cost of a team for the Ten Tors Challenge. This cost supports the Army to run the event safely and effectively for all students involved. Selection will be discussed with Ocean Rock following this wild camp weekend.

Please be aware we have paid the Army for the team entry cost so if your child is part of the final selection decided in April you will be asked for this payment to cover that cost immediately.

Focus of the days

This is now focusing on how you cope in a Wild Camp and remote navigation situation. As such be prepared to be self sufficient. Please find attached the MANDATORY kit list for Ten Tors attached.

Note for this wild camp please do not worry about the sleeping bag rules but they MUST have sterilisation tablets.

Students will also have marked maps with them with bird nesting areas and appropriate cards and organisation number visible on rucksack in case they are met on the moor by a moderator.

Team Kit

Ocean Rock will bring timings cards to support navigation, tents, stoves and bothy bags.

Medication

Any medication they have please ensure this is packed and accessible.

Best wishes

Mrs Rigby-Smith
